

COUNTY COUNCIL OF BALTIMORE COUNTY, MARYLAND
Legislative Session 2014, Legislative Day No. 1

Resolution No. 6-14

Mr. David Marks, Councilman

By the County Council, January 6, 2014

A RESOLUTION of the Baltimore County Council to re-designate the Joppa Trail Park site, the Forge View Park site, and the Soukup Arena site as the Susquehannock Trail Park site, the Gwynn-Harvey Park site, and the Soukup Park site, respectively.

WHEREAS, the Baltimore County Council adopted the Honeygo Plan as part of the Baltimore County Master Plan on July 5, 1994 (Resolution 55-94), and subsequently adopted the Honeygo area zoning overlay districts (Bill 176-94); and

WHEREAS, the County has identified and acquired the land for several park sites in the Honeygo area; and

WHEREAS, the County Council desires to honor the Native American trail that subsequently became what is now Joppa Road; and

WHEREAS, the County Council desires to honor the families that lived along Cross and Forge Road and were among the earliest African-American settlements that developed on the remains of the Perry Hall estate; and

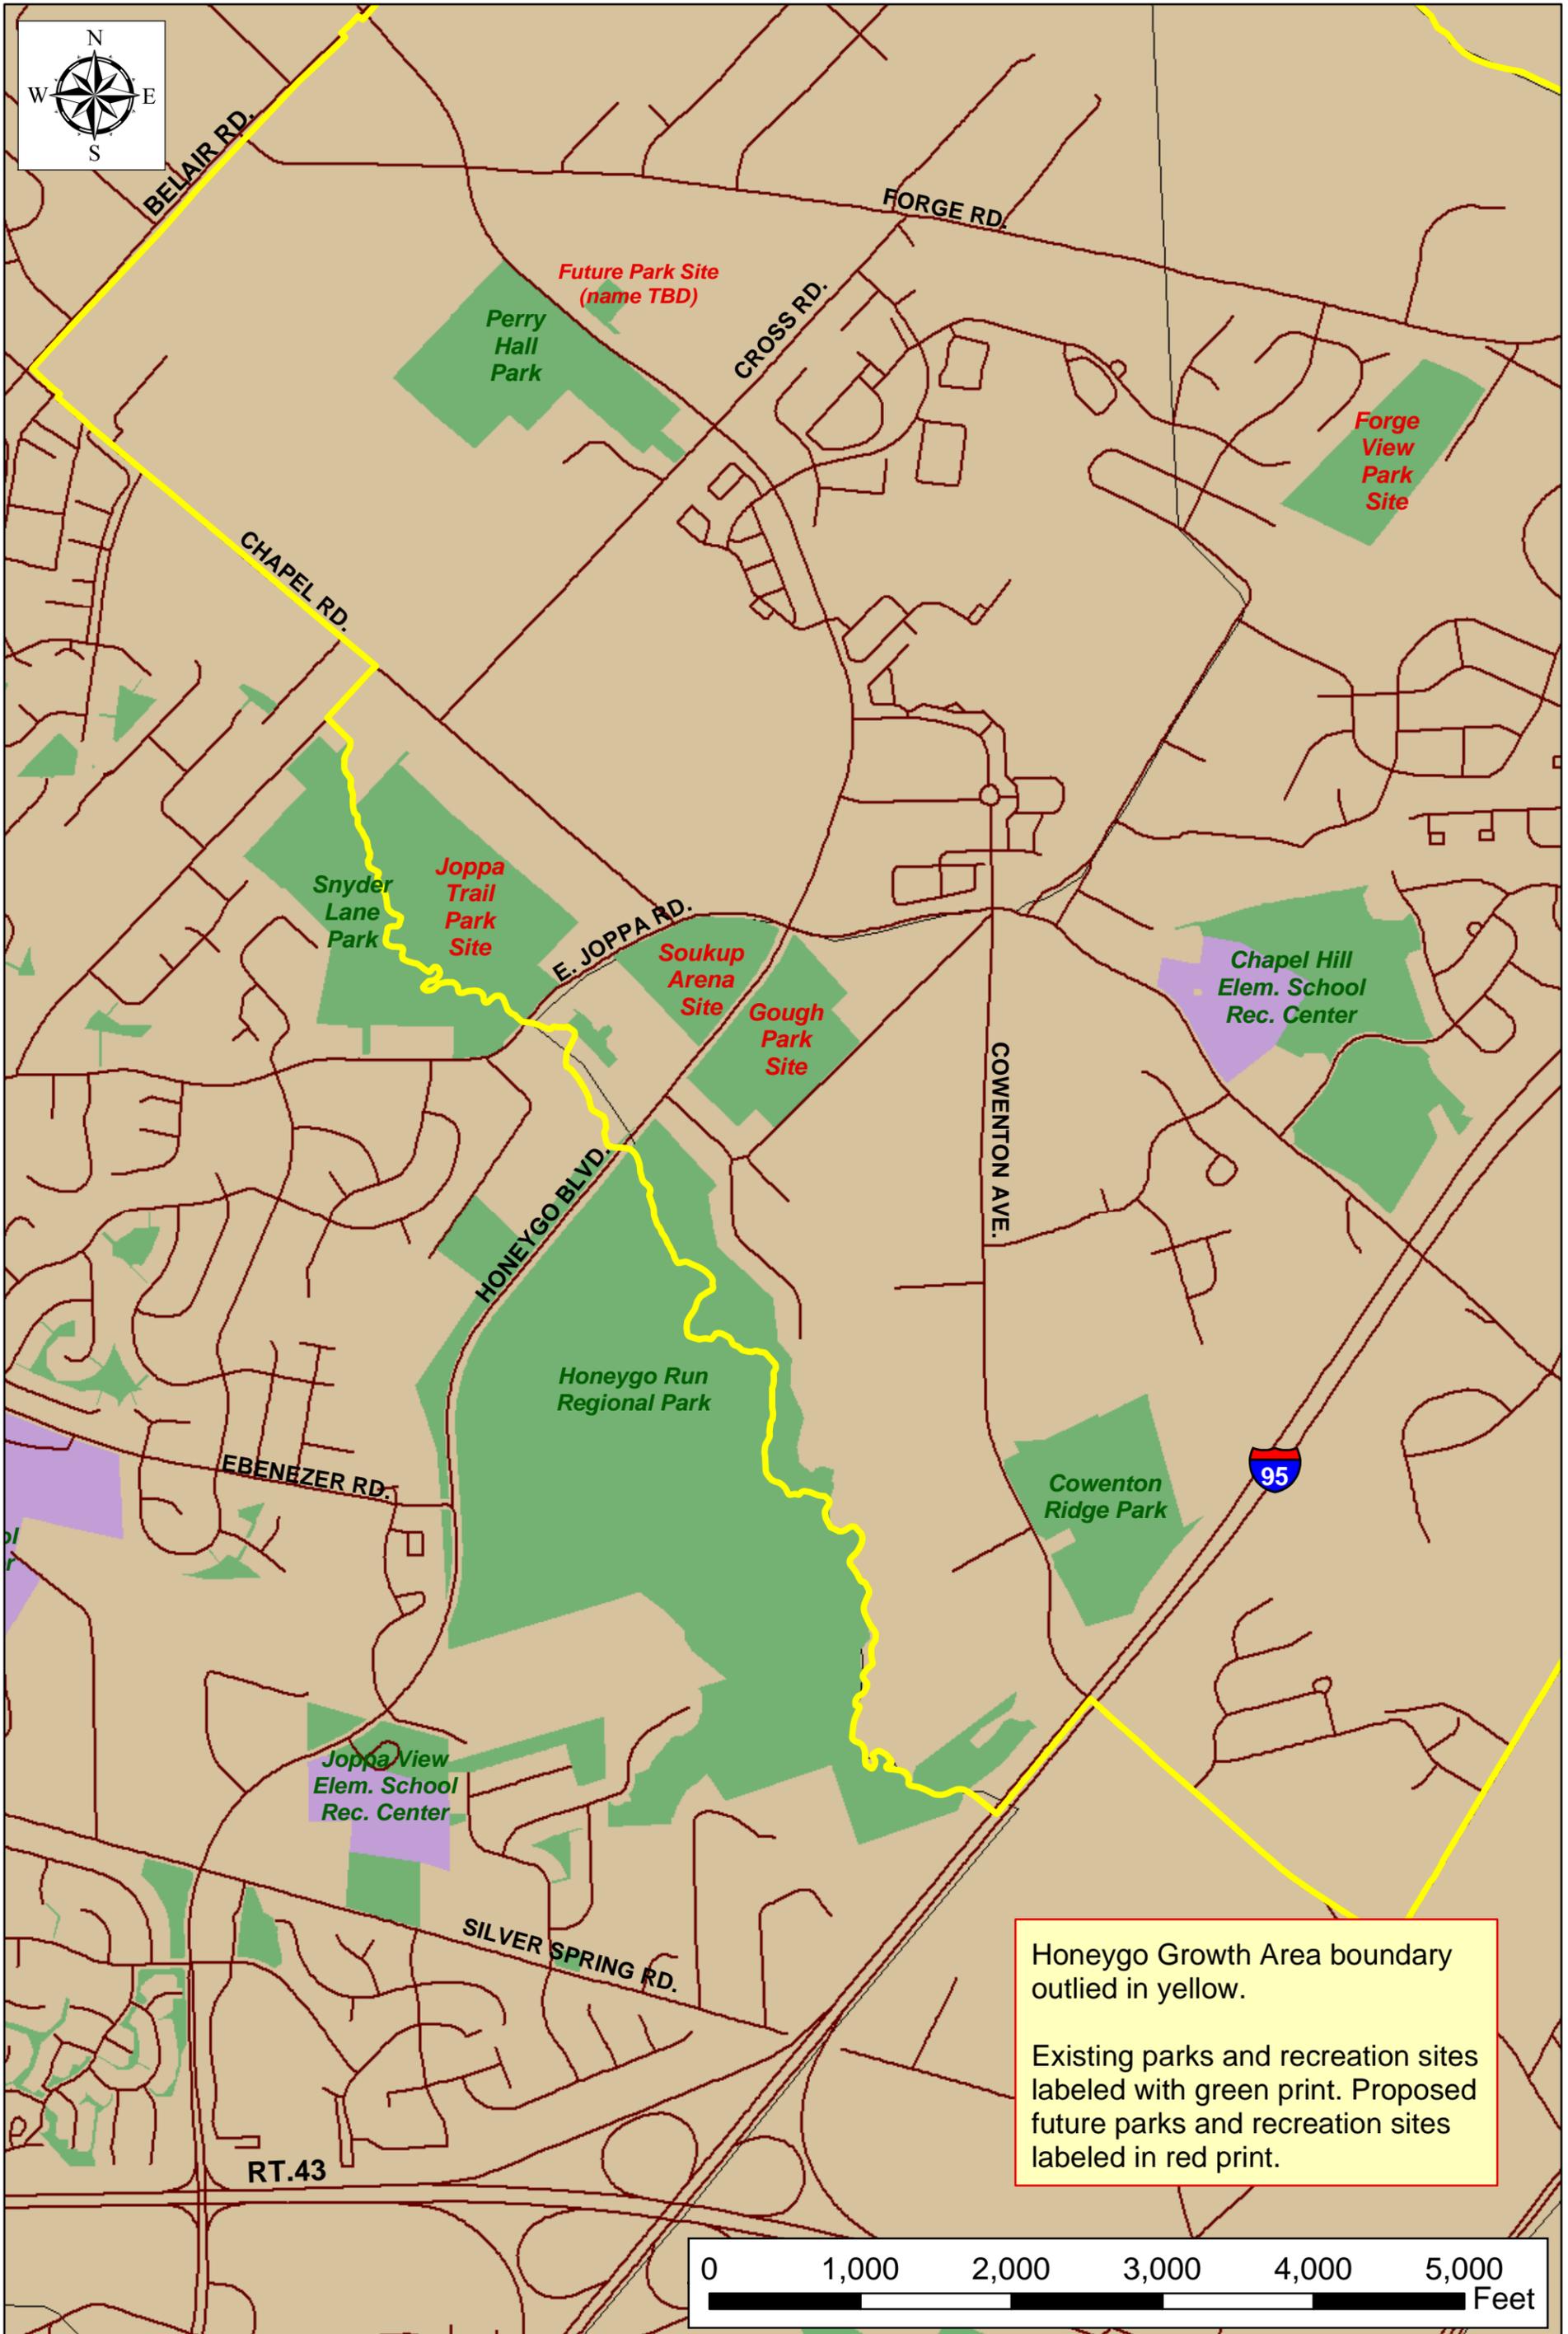

WHEREAS, the County Council wishes to recognize the many contributions of Jerry and Pat Soukup to the Perry Hall Recreation Council since 1955; now therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COUNTY COUNCIL OF BALTIMORE COUNTY, that the following park sites located in the Honeygo area, as described and depicted in the map attached hereto and made a part hereof, are hereby re-designated as follows:

- 1) The Joppa Trail Park site is re-designated as the Susquehannock Trail Park site; and
- 2) The Forge View Park site is re-designated as the Gwynn-Harvey Park site; and
- 3) The Soukup Arena site is re-designated as the Soukup Park site; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that copies of this Resolution shall be sent to the Department of Planning.
