

COUNTY COUNCIL OF BALTIMORE COUNTY, MARYLAND
Legislative Session 2014, Legislative Day No. 15

Resolution No. 87-14

Mr. David Marks, Councilman

By the County Council, September 15, 2014

A RESOLUTION of the Baltimore County Council to re-designate the Future Park Site adjacent to the Perry Hall Library as Angel Park.

WHEREAS, the Baltimore County Council adopted the Honeygo Plan as part of the Baltimore County Master Plan on July 5, 1994 (Resolution 55-94), and subsequently adopted the Honeygo area zoning overlay districts (Bill 176-94); and

WHEREAS, the County has identified and acquired the land for several park sites in the Honeygo area, including the Future Park Site that is located adjacent to the Perry Hall Library at 9685 Honeygo Boulevard and the Perry Hall Park ; and

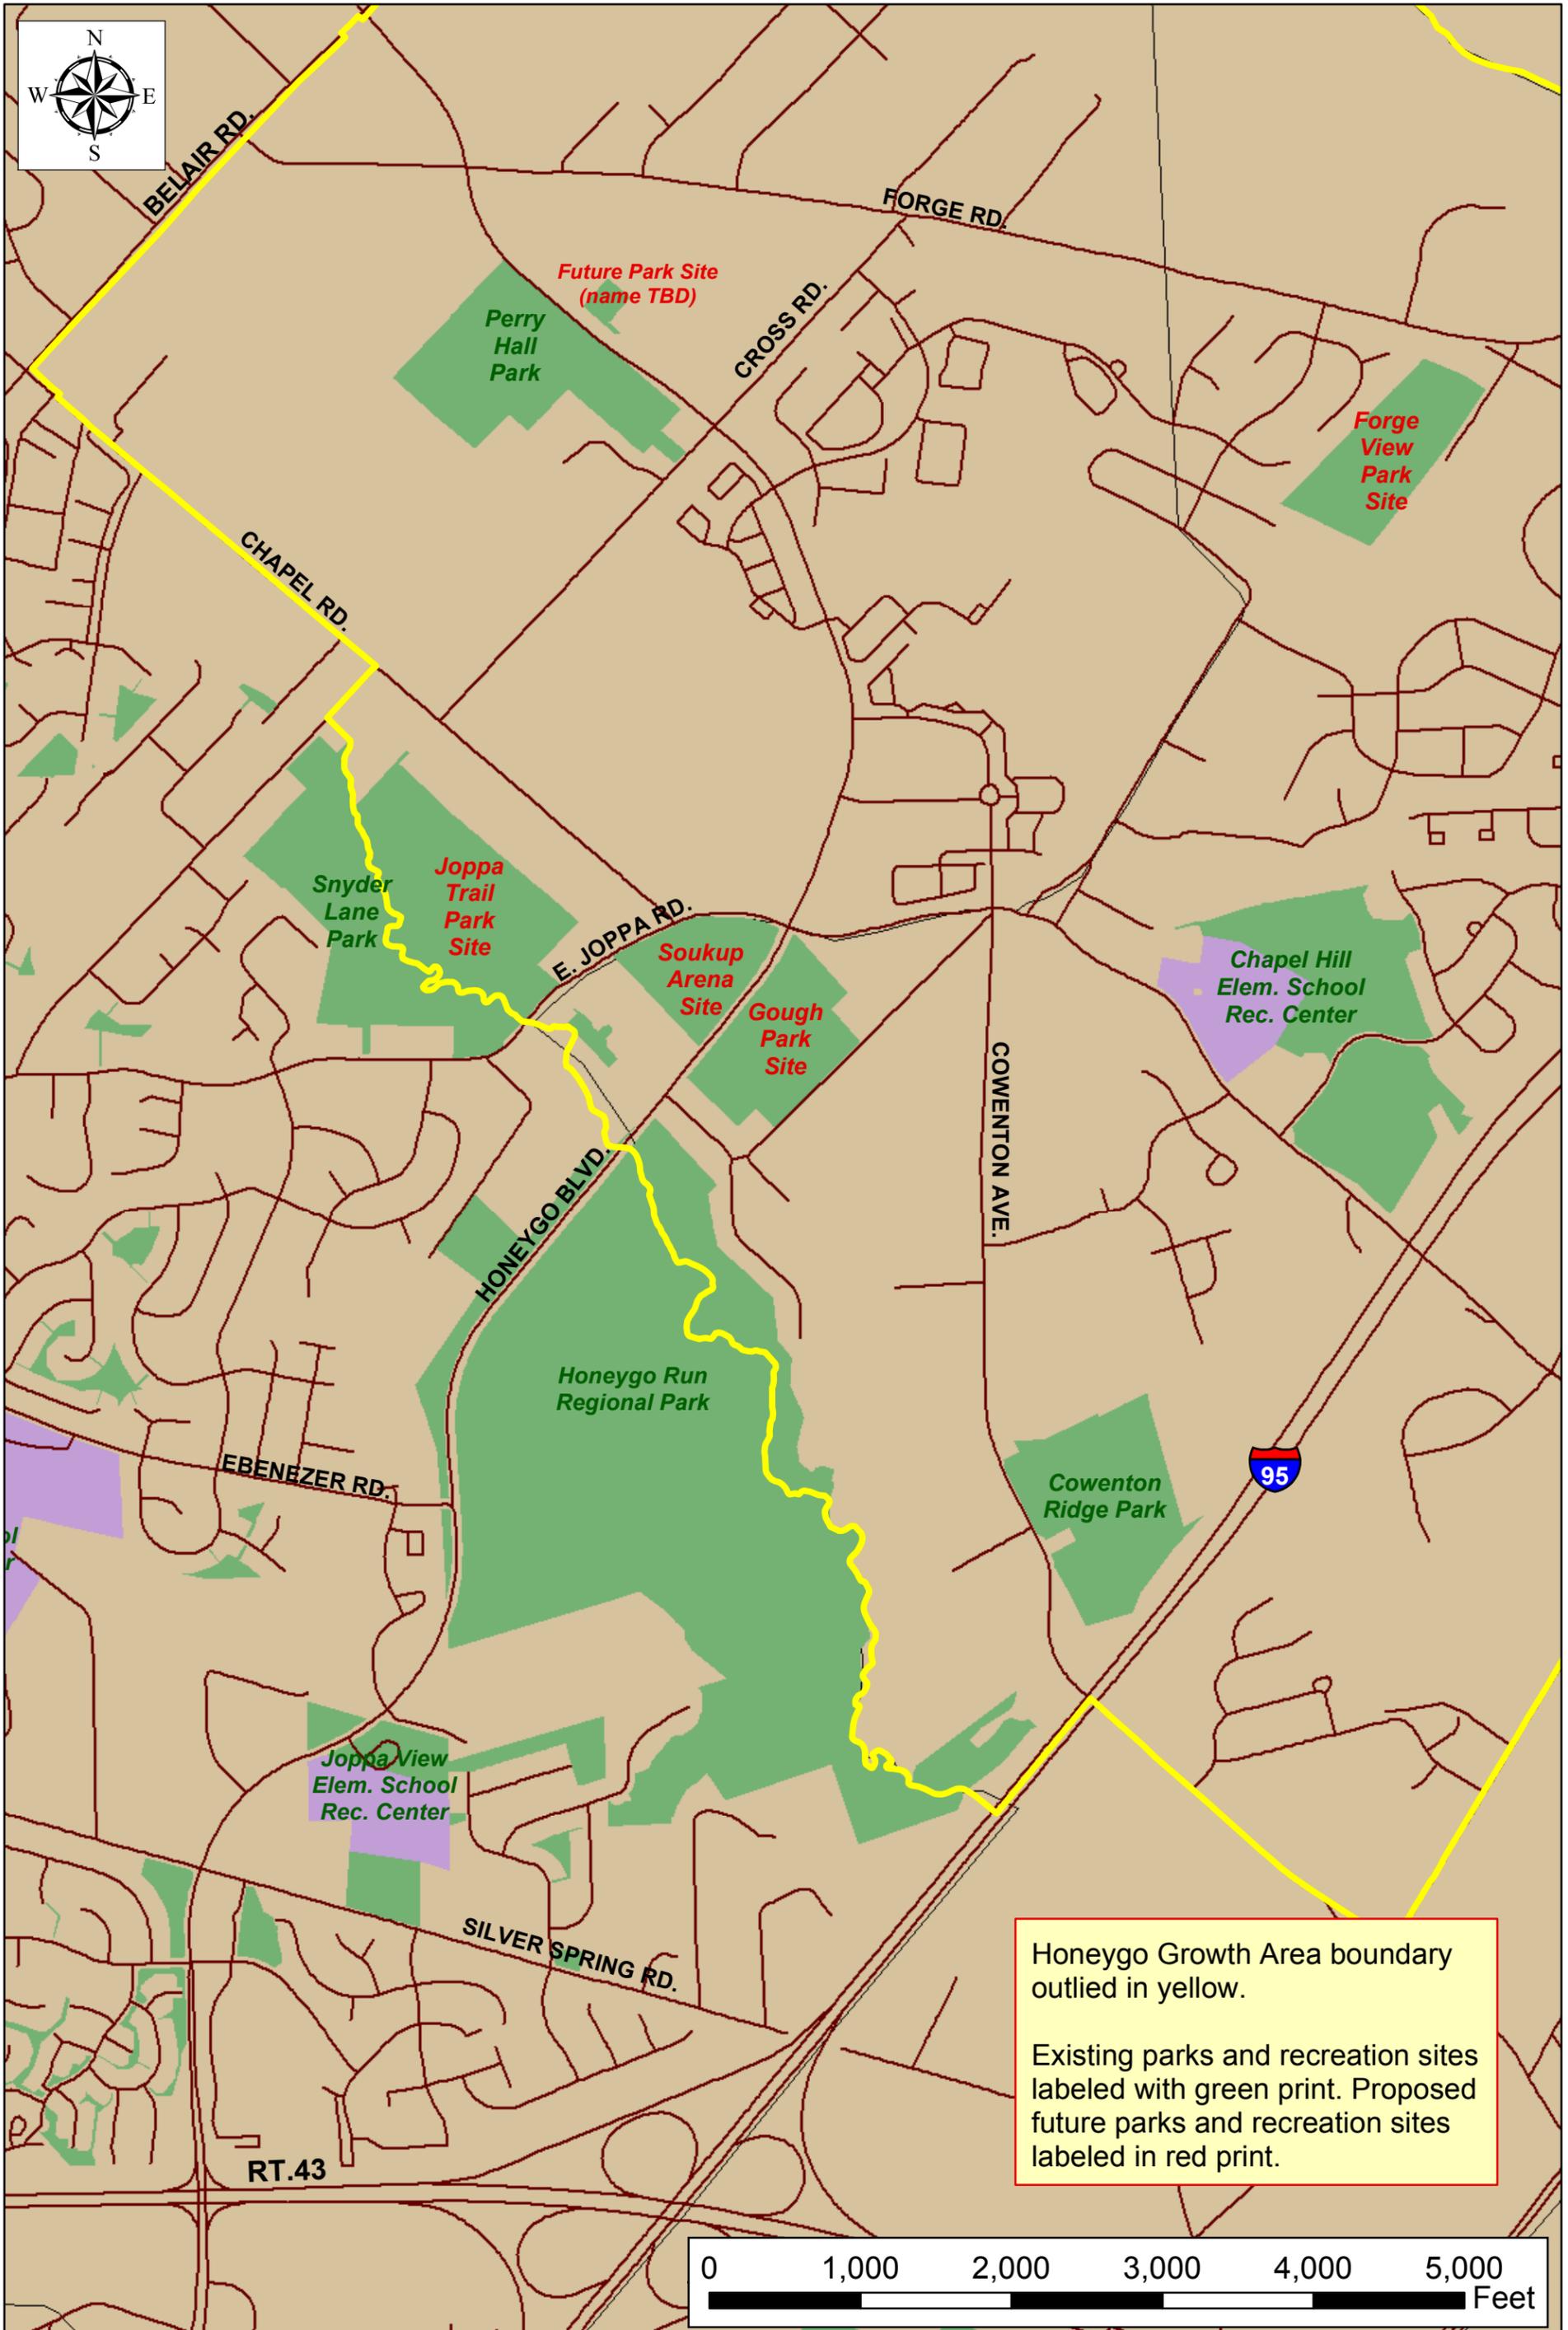

WHEREAS, the idea for the park was inspired by local Perry Hall residents Kelli and Andy Szczybor, who turned the tragedy of the loss of their infant son, Ryan, to Leukemia over 16 years ago, into an idea to build a park that would be a positive, safe, and peaceful area that every child and family could enjoy; and

WHEREAS, the name “Angel” was purposely chosen by the Perry Hall community to represent the goodness in community and the positive impact that people -- even total strangers -- can have on each other’s lives, and to represent a vision of an ideal setting for happiness and reflection; now therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COUNTY COUNCIL OF BALTIMORE COUNTY, that the currently designated Future Park Site located adjacent to the Perry Hall Library at 9685 Honeygo Boulevard and the Perry Hall Park, as described and depicted in the map attached hereto and made a part hereof, is hereby re-designated as “Angel Park;” and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that copies of this Resolution shall be sent to the Department of Planning.
