MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

This matter came before this Administrative Law Judge on August 28, 2012 for a Hearing on a citation for violations under the National Standard plumbing Code 2009 section: 1.4.4 Maintenance and Repairs: Expose and repair property sanitary sewer clean out and replace/repair any breaks or damage to property sanitary sewer line on residential property. At the conclusion of the hearing a civil penalty was imposed in the amount of $6,000.00 (six thousand dollars), $5,500.00 of the $6,000.00 civil penalty was suspended, and an immediate $500.00 fine was imposed. It was further ordered that the remaining $5,500.00 civil penalty would be imposed if the subject property was not brought into compliance by September 27, 2012.

On September 17, 2012 a document was received from Huu Van Nguyen, on behalf of Respondent Ha My Vo. The document was not titled as a Motion For Reconsideration, but was received within the time frame for such a filing. Therefore, since the Respondent is not represented by legal counsel, I will treat it as such.

The filing is in the form of a self styled "Declaration/Affidavit" and includes a number of statements, citations, and other comments, relating to what appears to be primarily procedural and jurisdictional objections. There is nothing in the filing that addresses the substantive issues upon which my decision in this matter was based; nor do I find any grounds in the filing to affect or alter in any way the jurisdiction of this Court.

Accordingly, the MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION is Denied.
