Concentrations of Spanish Speaking People

LEGEND
English as Second Language

0 - 200
201 - 400
401 - 600
601 - 800
801 - 879

URDL
Major Road
Regional Planning Districts
Baltimore County, Maryland

Map Description

- The map illustrates the concentrations of Spanish-speaking people in Baltimore County, Maryland.
- Various areas are shaded in different colors to indicate the levels of Spanish-speaking populations, ranging from 0 to 879.
- Labels indicate specific locations within the county, such as Towson, Dundalk/Turners Station, and Randallstown.
- The map includes major roads and the Baltimore County boundary.

Legend Key

- 0 - 200: Lightest shade of blue
- 201 - 400: Slightly darker blue
- 401 - 600: Dark blue
- 601 - 800: Very dark blue
- 801 - 879: Darkest blue

Directions

- The map uses a scale at the bottom to measure distances in miles.
- The map also includes a legend for the English as Second Language (ESL) concentrations.

Note

- The map provides a visual representation of the distribution of Spanish-speaking populations across different regions within Baltimore County.