Narrative Information

On 3/10/16 at 1616 hours Officer O'Connell was on routine patrol in marked police vehicle 211 in the area of Pikeswood Dr and Liberty Rd. Officer O'Connell observed a silver Toyota Camry with a rectangle piece of cardboard where a license plate should be secured.

Officer O'Connell conducted a traffic stop on the silver Toyota Camry. When Officer O'Connell exited his vehicle he was able to read what was written on the piece of cardboard. The rear piece of cardboard had the following written on it: "Any Government official who compromises this pursuit to happiness and right to travel, will be held criminally responsible and fined, as this is a natural right and freedom." A piece of cardboard on the front of Defendant Gaines vehicle had the words "Free Traveler" written on it. I asked the female driver who was later identified as Defendant Gaines via her Maryland driver's license why she did not have any tags on her vehicle. Defendant Gaines advised me that I did not have the right to pull her over and insisted that I identify myself. I asked Defendant Gaines for her driver's license and registration. Defendant Gaines advised me I do not have the authority to ask her for any information. I asked Defendant Gaines if the vehicle was registered and once again she advised me I do not have the authority to ask her any questions. Officer O'Connell observed two small children in the back seat of Defendant

Gains' vehicle.

Officer O'Connell asked for another Officer to respond to my location at which time Officer Dolan #5608 responded. Officer O'Connell repeatedly asked Defendant Gains for her driver's license and she repeatedly told Officer O'Connell he was breaking the law. Officer O'Connell advised Defendant Gains that if he was not able to identify her she would be placed under arrest. Defendant Gains then gave Officer O'Connell her Maryland driver's license.

A check through MVA of the VIN of the Toyota Camry that Defendant Gains was driving revealed the vehicle was listed to her and there were no tags listed. The check also revealed the vehicle was suspended for VEIP. The check did not reveal any insurance information. Officer O'Connell asked Defendant Gains about her insurance at which time she continued to be belligerent and advised she might have an old insurance card.

Defendant Gains was issued citations and a must appear form. Defendant Gains advised she did not want the citations or must appear form. Officer O'Connell placed the citations and must appear form inside of her vehicle. Defendant Gains threw the citations and must appear form out of her window.

Officer O'Connell advised Defendant Gains that her vehicle was being towed and she needed to get out of her vehicle and get her children out of her vehicle. Defendant Gains advised she was not going to get out of the vehicle and she would not let Officer O'Connell "steal her car." Officer O'Connell advised Defendant Gains if she did not get out of her vehicle she would be placed under arrest. Defendant Gains advised she was not going to get out of her vehicle and that Officers would have to "murder" her. While waiting for the tow truck Defendant Gains was asked multiple times to get out of her vehicle all the time advising she would not and we would have to make her. While waiting for other police officers to respond to the scene Defendant Gains took her infant child ( ) and held her on her lap. Defendant Gains also advised her 4 year old son ( ) to sit on her lap which he did.

Officer O'Connell once again asked Defendant Gains to get out of her vehicle and she replied she would not. Officer O'Connell advised Defendant Gains she was under arrest. Officer Ross #5475 had to hold back Defendant Gains arm in order for Officer Hanes #5442 to safely remove the infant child from her arms. Defendant Gains had to be physically removed from the vehicle at which time she put up a fight. Defendant Gains was screaming during the arrest and not allowing police personnel to place handcuffs on her. Because of Defendant Gains' behavior a crowd of people gathered to watch. Defendant Gains repeatedly yelled to the crowd of people that she could not breath and to "record this" while police were placing her under arrest. During the arrest and because Defendant Gains was resisting her finger was cut causing her to bleed. Defendant

Gaines asked for a medic at which time a medic was requested by Officer O'Connell.

Medics from Liberty Rd Volunteer Fire Station responded to the scene and transported Defendant Gaines to Northwest Hospital.

While waiting for the medics Defendant Gaines was screaming to her son to fight and bite Officer Dolan who was watching over him.

After Defendant Gaines was released from Northwest Hospital she was transported to Precinct 2 for processing.

Defendant Gaines' vehicle was towed by Windsor Towing.

Both children were released to the custody of their grandmother

The two pieces of cardboard were seized and packaged per departmental policy.

Detective Vaccaro #3556 from INTEL spoke with Defendant Gaines.
