BALTIMORE COUNTY SKATE PARK

Participants and/or parent/guardian of skater, if a minor, understand that skating entails unknown risks which simply cannot be eliminated without jeopardizing the essential qualities of the activity. The skater/skateboarder agrees to wear appropriate protective equipment when using the Baltimore County skating facility. The skater/skateboarder agrees to obey all of the rules and requirements of the facility listed below.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. The skate park is only open during posted hours. No loitering after the facility is closed.
2. SKATING/SKATEBOARDING AT YOUR OWN RISK.
3. All skaters/skateboarders must have a registration card and provide their own skating equipment.
4. Any member caught using another member's registration card to gain access to the Skate Park will be subject to immediate termination from skating privileges.
5. Safety equipment must be worn at all times. This includes a helmet, knee and elbow pads. Closed toed, high top, non-stick shoes, gloves, wrist braces and hip pads are encouraged, but not required.
6. Any and all types of rip sticks, bikes and scooters are prohibited in the fenced area.
7. In the event of an emergency or injury, all skaters/skateboarders must discontinue skating until further directed by County staff.
8. No food, beverages or smoking is allowed in the fenced area.
9. No destroying or defacing public property.
10. Skaters/skateboarders must follow the direction of the County staff at all times. County staff's decisions are final.
11. Recklessness, horseplay, foul language, not listening to the County staff or any inappropriate behavior will not be tolerated and will subject you to removal from the park.
12. County staff reserves the right to limit the number of skaters/skateboarders using the facility to prevent overcrowding.

Infractions of the above rules may result in the loss of Skate Park Card and all skating/skateboarding privileges.
